The Bowie Lives: A Bowie Spectacular

Date and Time: Thursday, October 3 8:00 pm

Zapp! Re-Productions presents: The Bowie Lives: A Bowie Spectacular

THURSDAY OCTOBER 3, 2024 at 8:00 PM

CONCERT HALL at VICTORIA HALL

The Bowie Lives is excited to continue their run of theatres in 2024, with the addition of new songs and costumes, this "Bowie Spectacular" continues to excite audiences whenever they play.

Perhaps this email from an audience member best sums it up... "Saw the show last night in Midland and was blown away. Was a little apprehensive at first as I have been a Bowie fan since I was a teen and i was concerned the band may not do the songs justice. i was overwhelmingly thrilled at what I heard and saw, from the first note I was hooked. The biggest take away is you can tell the lead singer is truly a devoted fan himself. Loved the way you honoured David Bowie. Hope to see you in Collingwood"

The industry thinks so too...

"5 Stars! Unbelievable! I could have watched them for two more hours!" says Richard Crouse, Host of CTV Po

pLife. "By far, the best & coolest Bowie Tribute I've seen!" says Sam Grosso, Cadillac Productions. "As close as it gets!" says MusikMirage.com

They're all talking about the "The Bowie Lives" Canada's Most Spectacular Tribute to David Bowie! Michael Bell is an award-winning vocalist who channels the sound and styles of David Bowie, and with the help of an all-star band, multi-media, theatre and costumes, he has captured the imagination of fans young and old.

Michael discovered Bowie as a teen and performed songs with a number of his early bands. By the 80's his first theatrical production "ChangesAllBowie" toured the "A circuit" before hanging up his "Ziggy" in the early '90s. Decades passed. After David's untimely death on January 10, 2016, Michael's calling returned; his calling to honor the man who helped shape his life. Together with musical director Michael Beauclerc, they began auditioning players to fill out a band capable of performing some of Rock's most challenging material. The Bowie Lives bring all the hits to the stage, from Space Oddity to Lazarus, and everything in between.

The Bowie Lives PRE-SHOW includes the Bowie Bazaar; T-shirts, collectibles, LP's and DVDs and more. Come in costume dressed as your favourite David, or wear your favourite swag and be rewarded! Don't forget to grab a button!

Michael is also the subject of an upcoming documentary film "Being David Bowie" and an upcoming web-series "The Bowie Lives."

Tickets are $39.50 plus hst and service fee and available at the Concert Hall Box Office: 855-372-2210

Opening Reception: A Collection Built on Relationships

Date and Time: Saturday, October 5 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

The Art Gallery of Northumberland (AGN) warmly invites you to the opening reception of an exhibition celebrating the historic appointment of Mary Simon, Canada's first Indigenous Governor General, in 2021.

This exhibition showcases Inuit carvings, sculptures, and materials from 1900 to 1970, offering a glimpse into the artistic expressions and lived experiences of the Inuit people during a period of rapid cultural change. These pieces, sourced from communities across the Inuit Nunangat (Inuit Homeland), are presented alongside a map reflecting the land treaties between the Crown and the Inuit, using their original Inuktitut place names as part of the ongoing process of decolonization.

Through this exhibit, we honour not only the artistic legacy of the Inuit but also the resilience of their culture in the face of traders, missionaries, and Canadian government officials.

Date: Saturday, October 5, 2024

Time: 1:00 p.m.

R.S.V.P. : Lindsay Fler at lfler@agncobourg.ca

Northumberland Film Sunday: Crossing

Date and Time: Sunday, October 27 3:30 pm - 6:00 pm

From acclaimed director Levan Akin (And Then We Danced), CROSSING is a moving and tender tale of identity, acceptance and unlikely connection that transcends borders and generations. Lia, a retired school teacher living in Georgia, hears from a young neighbor Achi that her long lost niece Tekla, a transgender woman, has crossed the border into Turkey. Hoping to bring Tekla home after a period of estrangement, Lia travels to Istanbul with the unpredictable Achi to find her. Exploring the hidden depths of the city, they cross paths with a transgender lawyer called Evrim, who helps them in their search. Humanistic and compassionate, Akin's third feature is a heartfelt portrayal of overcoming the degrees of separation that divide us.
